

Gentlemen of the BTC,

February 9, 2023

We are a little more than a month away from our first dinner of 2023. The St. Patrick's Day dinner will be March 14th at 6:30. Gino Maira and the staff at Mama Vesuvio's always take real good care of us so make your plans to be there. Also, think about securing your 2 man (golf) partner for this year. Larry would like to start collecting the money for that at the St. Pat's dinner.

Bowling went well this week. My Ascend Wealth Planning team took 5 points and for the first time in a long time we are at the top of our division. Smokey's Bandits kicked our ass in the third game but overall we all had a good time. This week's top series once again was claimed by Craig O'Reilly (761). I was a very distant second (694). Craig's third game (278) gave him the day's high game over Mike Heslop's 264. Last week I mentioned that I had never seen nor did I have any idea what kind of bowler Andy Zilis is (was). This week Hutch and a couple others who have been around longer than I have brought to my attention that Andy is (was) a terrific bowler and a past high average award winner in the BTC. Besides bringing that to my attention, the ageless wonder, Wayne "Hutch" Hutchinson had the front 8 strikes in the second game and shot 692 Tuesday.

There is bowling that goes on outside our little BTC world. This past Sunday's PBA U.S. Open was phenomenal. Kyle Troup climbed the stepladder from bottom to top before losing a great match to E.J. Tackett. Both guys traded open frames early and then were dead even all of the way to the tenth frame when a 4-6 split after a strike by Troup opened the door for Tackett to claim his first U.S. Open title and become only the ninth bowler to ever win bowling's triple crown.

In golf news all of you Bears fans will be happy to know that Aaron Rodgers won the Pebble Beach Pro Am this week. Justin Rose was the top pro at -18. WM Open at TPC Scottsdale is next up for the PGA. This is always one of the more popular non major events of the year and attracts a lot of the top players. Rory Mc Ilroy is hoping to use this tournament to reclaim the #1 world ranking. His 2 over par (73) today is not helping.

I wanted to go have dinner with the tennis guys this week but they didn't tell me where they were until 10:00. I think they did that on purpose. I did hear through the grape vine that they had their usual good time which was highlighted Tuesday by throwing plastic fruit from the centerpiece at chairman Al Baldermann. I hear he needs to work on his catching skills.

We are just over a week into February so if you haven't gotten your annual dues to Bob "Bad Knee" Kennedy (not to be mistaken for Steve "One Knee" Ostrowski), please do so A.S.A.P.

Happy February Birthdays: Lou Ornoff (2), Frank Carioti (5), Roger Byrnes (9), Dave Blyth (12), Dan Blyth (12), Bob DeFalco (13), Ben Tutka (13), Gary Bybee (15), Marv Huddleston (16), Ed Kern (18), Doug Blyth (22), Gar Ward (23), Don Franko (16), Steve Anderson (26), Charles Pettrone (28). Let me know if I missed anyone.

I have to apologize as I did not make bowling this week due to my work schedule being booked up with my annual Dinner Gala fundraiser coming 2/11/23. I did make dinner with the tennis guys & tons of laughs & experienced some of Evergreen Park’s finest memories of restaurants, thanks to the waitresses we met at Bella Mia. We were making love connections for our more senior club members. Thank to Mike Ganz, Al Baldermann and John Zielinski for donating to my Foundation. We have a ton of items you can bid on plus raffles- visit <https://lwef2023.givesmart.com> & be amazed!
