

Gentlemen of the BTC,

February 13, 2025

It was another good night of bowling at old Burr Oak Lanes, and we are one week closer to golf. There were no mystery winners, and the corner pin rolled over. There were some good scores for the afternoon. Jeff Dinga had a 301 and Chuck Cahill a 285 in the first game. Guido Guarnieri had a 267 and Roger Stewart a 271 in the second game. Cahill struck again for a 280 in the third game, along with John Delano's 262. Dennis Samoska Jr. and Dinga had a 567 in the first doubles game. Guido and Anthony Serritella had a 529 in the second game, and Hal Eberling and Cahill had a 512 in the third game. Blind doubles had Samoska Jr. and Cahill a 510, Brown and Serritella a 509, and Brown and Hammond's 508.

The Brosius Doubles came to a conclusion with me and Roberts winning with a 2816. Roberts also came in second with Alexander at 2797. Tadevich and Cahill came in third with a 2778. It was a good and exciting tournament. Chuck Cahill just bowled awesome in all three games.

And a big thank you to Keith Tadevich for providing pizza, pasta, and salad after bowling. It sure hit the spot.

Forgot to mention Cahill won survivor with a 280. Tutka took second with a 249 and another big thank you to Keith Tadevich and Anthony Serritella for running the doubles pot, the survivor pot, and last game pot that they usually don't do. Thanks for stepping up.

Well, now's the time for my ten-pin saga. I was 7 out of 10 on ten pins this week as Keith's workers were hard at work. Ten of them. You've got to be kidding, but I am now 46 out of 71 on the season. Waldo was 5 out of 6 on 7 pins. He said he did some practicing. Good job, it worked.

I am on to second base on my all-time starting lineup. So far, I have Sandy Koufax pitching, Johnny Bench catching, and Lou Gehrig at first. I am going with Ryne Sandburg at second, not because I am a Cubs fan, but because his stats prove he was the best fielder and hitter at that position all time.

P.S. Philadelphia kicked butt in the Super Bowl. Their defensive line deserved a group MVP.

Tennis Report – Al Baldermann

15 players. Nobody broke their rackets or fell down, so it was a good night.
After tennis 7 of us went to Balagio for dinner. Good food. Late night.

Bowling News

Congratulations to John Roberts and Dave Jenner who are our 2025 Brocius Doubles Champions with a score of 2816. John Roberts also took home 2nd Place by shooting 2797 with his partner Tony Alexander. Third place finishers were Chuck Cahill and Keith Tadevich with a total of 2778. A special thank you to Gary Klonowski and Andy Zilis, who ran another wonderful event this year! After bowling, while the scores were being calculated we enjoyed a complimentary Salad, Mostaccioli, and Pizza Buffet. It was nice to see the majority of our bowlers socializing over food and drinks! All of our bowlers have paid their dues for the 2025 year, I thank you all for this, as it makes my life easier.

The next big event this year will be our annual Calcutta which will be held Tuesday, March 25th this year – I will be donating extra money into our prize list for this tournament, so I hope all bowlers will participate. All bowlers for this event receive handicap, and the teams are chosen in a way that make all the teams equally balanced. There will not be any regular bowling that week!
