

Gentlemen of the BTC,

June 22, 2023

It's been a few years since BTC played Cinder Ridge. We had 80 golfers make the trek out to Wilmington. The weather was fantastic. And in my opinion and based on what I heard from many of the guys afterwards, it was certainly worth the trip. The course was in excellent condition. I wouldn't say it's an overly tough course, but it certainly does have some challenges. There are a few fairways you definitely don't want to miss. Also, there is a whole lot of ugly behind the greens. Going long on your approach shot will get you in trouble and if you miss left or right on the par 3's, getting up and down for par is no picnic. While entering the scores Scott Lee and I both noticed that the scores were a little higher than usual this week.

One of the highlights of the week was the $2 hot dogs after golf. Apparently, they made lots of hot dogs in anticipation of a big crowd after golf. Once they realized that we were more interested in drinking beer than eating hot dogs they lowered the price from $5 down to $2. Of course, with this group once they announced the discount there was a stampede at the hot dog counter.

Bob Kennedy's 80 and Jack Garetto's 81 were the low rounds of the week. Tom Ollenburger and John Roberts had the low net rounds (71). In the "A" division Daily Game John Bondi had a good week winning a closest to the pin, a skin and first place in the blind doubles with his partner "ME". The big winner in the "B" division was Greg Lewis. Greg picked up a skin, 2 closest to the pins and 1st place in the blind doubles with partner Vince Oliva.

This week was the second round of Club Championship matches. Congratulations to all who advanced. I had an exciting match with Ed Kern. I was up only one hole after 17 and was able to escape with a win. Until recently I didn't know who Ed Kern was but over the last few weeks, I had the pleasure of being paired with him twice and it truly was a pleasure. We also had my friend and BTC sponsor John "Guido" Guarnieri in our group. Always a lot of fun playing with Guido.

If you weren't able to get your match in this week you need to make arrangements with your opponent to get that match completed as soon as possible.

It was nice to see our two newest applicants Willy Janda and Jim Moretti out at Cinder Ridge. They are now both one step closer to getting their BTC handicap which requires 5 rounds played.

Next week we will be at Green Garden on the blue course. It will be the second round of 2-Man matches. Good luck to all of those that are still in it. If you are unable to play your match, please let your opponents and Larry Garetto know right away.

Bob Kennedy told me he attends Frankfort Country Markets most Sundays and sees Larry Garetto & Ron Abramowitz often. He just saw Nick Mady who is dealing with a bad back. Nick told Bob to tell everyone hello, so keep Nick in your prayers & let's hope he gets back to golf soon.

Often times it is mentioned in the newsletter to check things on the website. It was brought to my attention that there are members that do not know the web address. The Builders Tee Club website is www.builderstee.com

Important AED Information: If you haven't watched the AED video yet, please do so. It describes both the procedure for getting help and what you should do if one of our members has a suspected heart attack on the golf course. The following link will take you directly to the video.

<https://youtube.com/watch?v=7UI4iJlvjGQ&feature=share> Like I said before, I am not a cinematic genius, but the video does have some very valuable information. We are hoping more members would watch the short video so we can watch out for each other in case of emergency. To date, less than 30 members have watched the video. Please take the time to do so - it may save someone's life or maybe even your own.

Happy June Birthdays: Don Borus (11), Chuck Febel Jr. (11), Ray Cantelo (13), Mike Paoletti (18), Pete Lambros (20), Lee Kaz (22), John Paliga and Lee Tew (93 years young!) - (27).

Let me know if I missed anyone.
